INVESTMENT OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGIES

The investment objective of NCM Growth and Income Portfolio (the "Fund") is designed to provide investors with long term capital appreciation and some current income by investing, directly or indirectly through investments in underlying funds, in a diversified portfolio of equity securities and fixed-income securities from anywhere in the world.

The Fund achieves this objective by aiming to maintain a diversified portfolio of securities, either directly or indirectly through investments in underlying funds, including underlying funds managed or advised by the Manager or its affiliates. The equity component of the Fund will generally range between 60% – 75%, while the fixed income component will generally range between 25% – 40%, based upon the portfolio manager's assessment of market conditions.

It is expected that the Fund will invest primarily in underlying funds managed or advised by the Manager or its affiliates and exchange traded funds ("ETF's").

The Fund may invest up to all of its assets in securities of mutual funds, exchange traded funds and/or direct securities as it seeks to diversify its exposures across geography, sectors, capitalization, credit quality, and duration. As such, the Fund may invest up to all of its assets in foreign securities.

When selecting an underlying security for the Fund, the portfolio manager will aim to ensure that such investment is consistent with the Fund's investment objectives and will consider the market exposure of the security, the long term performance track record from a risk and reward perspective, and the associated fees, if any.

The Fund may invest in private placements or other illiquid equity or debt securities of public or private companies as permitted by securities regulations.

The Fund may engage in a limited amount of short selling as well as in securities lending, repurchase, and reverse repurchase transactions. The Fund may also invest in derivatives (including forward contracts, calls, and puts) and in Horizon Beta Pro Exchange Traded Funds. These transactions will be used with the Fund's other investment strategies in a manner considered most appropriate to achieving the Fund's overall investment objectives and enhancing the Fund's returns.

The Fund may depart from its investment objectives and/or investment strategies by temporarily investing all or a portion of its assets in cash or fixed income securities issued or guaranteed by a Canadian or U.S. government, government agency, or company to try to protect it during a market downturn or for other reasons.

RISK

The risk level of the Fund is low to medium.

The Fund is suitable for investors with a low to medium risk tolerance seeking a combination of capital gains potential and current income. General risks of an investment in the Fund are detailed in the simplified prospectus and include equity risk, small and mid-capitalization company risk, series risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk, and currency risk, among others.

The majority of the exposure in the Fund is to equities and fixed income investments held in underlying Funds or ETF's. Equities are generally a volatile asset class. Furthermore, higher yielding investments, in equities and bonds, makes the Fund sensitive to changes in interest rates.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

As of September 30th, 2019, the twelve month return for the Fund was 6.5%. This performance compares to the Fund's benchmark, which had a return of +5.9% over the same period. The Fund's benchmark is comprised of 27.5% FTSE TMX Canada Universe Bond Index, 45.0% MSCI World Net Total Return Index (currency hedged), 22.5% S&P/TSX Composite Total Return Index, and 5.0% S&P 3-Month Canada Treasury Bill Total Return Index. The past twelve months was a very volatile period in financial markets, with significant equity market weakness in the 4th quarter of 2018 followed by a strong recovery during the first three quarters of 2019. Despite this, the Fund outperformed its benchmark over the period.

The Fund contains a mix of actively and passively managed products. For more information on the actively managed assets held by this Fund, including NCM Short Term Income Fund, NCM Core Canadian, NCM Norrep Fund, and NCM Core Global, please see each Fund's respective MRFP's for their results of operations summaries. Each Fund's MRFP can be found on their website; <http://www.ncminvestments.com/tools/regulatory-library/>.

The passively managed ETF assets held in the Fund all performed in line with expectations relative to their underlying indices.

The one significant change that was made over the period, after the initial investments were made by the Fund, was the addition of the iShares S&P Global Water Index ETF.

In the U.S., although economic data has been weakening recently, overall the Manager feels that future growth prospects remain reasonably strong. A growing economy, strong earnings growth and reasonable valuations should continue to support U.S. equity market performance over the medium term. U.S. Federal Reserve interest rate policy is also a key factor for the Manager to continue to monitor closely.

In Europe, despite faltering growth prospects and increasing Brexit related risks, the performance of the European equity markets was reasonably good over the period. While the UK and Continental European economies struggle with growth, these equity markets offer attractive valuations along with high dividend yields (currently in excess of 3%).

Along with the rest of the global economy, the outlook for Asia and Emerging Markets has deteriorated recently due in large part to slowing global economic growth, along with political issues around trade. The outlook for Japan continues to be weak due to low levels of economic and corporate earnings growth. However, over the medium term, the growth outlook for much of the rest of Asia and Emerging Markets looks very attractive, particularly when compared to the developed markets.

While the outlook for the global economy has deteriorated somewhat recently, the Manager continues to have a positive outlook for global equity markets. According to a recent International Monetary Fund (“IMF”) report, global gross domestic product is forecasted to grow by 3.1% in 2019, increasing to 3.4% for 2020. Global earnings growth rate estimates have come down but are still reasonable, especially as we look towards 2020. In addition, valuations remain reasonable. Based on our overall assessment of the current fundamentals, we continue to have a constructive, positive outlook for the global equity markets.

Given the strong performance of the fixed income markets, particularly year-to-date, and the slightly higher degree of uncertainty in the market currently, we believe spreads will likely widen modestly in both investment grade and non-investment grade credit. As of September 30, 2019 investment grade spreads sit at approximately 120 basis points over the comparable duration U.S. Treasury bond, just below the average spread of 127 basis points for the most recent 12 months. Non-investment grade spreads are approximately 420 basis points over the comparable duration U.S. Treasury bond, which is also the average spread for the most recent 12 months.

Other indicators remain at levels that do not warrant alarm. Overall market leverage has remained steady year-to-date 2019, and while interest coverage ratios ticked modestly lower (higher is better), they remain healthy for the most part, and should remain so given we do not expect interest rates to rise in the next 12 months or so. In view of these factors, we feel relatively positive regarding prospects for both investment grade and non-investment grade credit over the next twelve months, although there may be some volatility.

We believe the Fund’s positioning is appropriate in light of our expectations. We provide a current yield by investing in both investment grade and non-investment grade credit through the NCM Short Term Income Fund and two BMO fixed income ETFs (one high yield, one investment grade), while maintaining a reasonable duration overall. Our positions are able to take advantage of any downward movement in interest rates with a slight defensive bias in case recession fears are warranted. Lastly, should rates increase any resulting headwinds would be offset by our relatively short duration.

For the year ended September 30, 2019, the Fund earned interest and dividend income of $1,911 and $334,337 respectively. The change in unrealized appreciation in current value of investments was an increase of $1,082,469 and the realized gain on investments was $50,869. Management fees of $167,822 were paid. General and administrative costs were $25,591, which includes an operating expense recovery of $111,552, related to the operations of the Fund. As a result of the above, the increase in net assets attributable to holders of redeemable units was $1,276,173. Net assets attributable to holders of redeemable units at the beginning of the year were $150,000. Proceeds from the sale of units were $21,107,308; reinvestment of dividends was $49,048 and redemptions were $3,545,860. Distributions declared to holders of redeemable units were $147,219. By September 30, 2019, the Fund had net assets attributable to holders of redeemable units of $18,889,450.
